PUBLIC INVITED TO WESTHAMPTON BEACH VILLAGE CANDIDATES DEBATE

Monday, June 7, 7 p.m.

Candidates for Village Mayor and Village Trustees

The League of Women Voters of the Hamptons is hosting a debate for Village of Westhampton Beach mayoral and trustee candidates on Monday, June 7, 7 p.m. at the Westhampton Beach Village Hall, 165 Mill Road, to enable voters to hear the candidates' positions and question them about important issues before the Friday, June 18 election.

Invited to participate are the two mayoral candidates Conrad Teller and Hank Tucker, and the three candidates for two open seats on the village board—Toni-Jo Birk, Leola (Sue) Farrell and Charles Palmer.

Debate format consists of the candidates making timed opening and closing statements and answering questions from a panel composed of a LWV representative and a local newspaper editor. Questions will also be taken from the audience.

Organizer of the debate is LWV Voter Services chair Anne Marshall. Members of the League will also serve as timekeepers.

Further information is available from Ms. Marshall at 631-766-3687.
