LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS OF THE HAMPTONS HOSTS PUBLIC PROGRAM ON 'SUFFOLK COUNTY AND THE SOUTH FORK: ITS ECONOMY AND THE ARTS'
Monday, September 14, 7 p.m.

For its fall opening meeting on Monday, September 14 at 7 p.m., the League of Women Voters of the Hamptons is hosting a free public program titled "Suffolk County and the South Fork: Its Economy and the Arts," which will serve as an update on Suffolk County and South Fork economic issues.

Patrick (Skip) Heaney, former Supervisor of the Town of Southampton and now County Commissioner of the Department of Economic Development and Workforce Housing, will speak on local economic development. Michelle Stark, County Director of the Office of Film and Cultural Affairs, will speak about the arts and visual media sectors of the East End economy.

The meeting, which all members of the public are invited to attend, will take place at the Unitarian Universalist Meetinghouse, 977 Bridgehampton-Sag Harbor Turnpike in Bridgehampton, two miles north of Montauk Highway, across from Ziggy's Restaurant.

Refreshments will precede the program, and a question-and-answer session will follow. Earlier that evening at 5 p.m. the League will host a new member orientation, to which all new and prospective members are invited.

Those interested in joining the League may call membership chair Arlene Makl of East Hampton at 631-324-8662.
