PUBLIC INVITED TO SOUTHAMPTON TOWN BOARD CANDIDATES DEBATE
Wednesday, February 24, 7:30 p.m.
Featuring Southampton Town Board candidates Bridget Fleming vs. William Hughes

The League of Women Voters of the Hamptons and The Southampton Press are co-sponsoring a debate between Southampton Town Board candidates Bridget Fleming and William Hughes on Wednesday, February 24, 7:30 p.m. at the Southampton Cultural Center Auditorium, 25 Pond Lane, to enable voters to hear the two candidates' positions and question them about important issues in the March 9 special election.

The special election is being held to fill the seat of former Southampton Town Board member Anna Throne-Holst, who was elected Southampton Town Supervisor in the November general election.

Debate format consists of the candidates making timed opening and closing statements and answering questions posed by a panel of local newspaper editors and LWV president Carol Mellor. Questions will also be taken from the audience.

Organizer and moderator of the debate is LWV Voter Services chair Anne Marshall. Members of the League will also serve as timekeepers.

The debate will be videotaped by SEA-TV for later viewing on Southampton's public access channel 22. For those not living in Southampton Town, the program can be seen on their Web site at www.town.southampton.ny.us at the same time the debate is showing on channel 22.

Further information is available from Ms. Marshall at 631-537-3257.
