LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS OF THE HAMPTONS HOSTS
'A PUBLIC FORUM ON THE RIVERHEAD RESORTS PLAN IN CALVERTON'
Monday, November 10, 7 p.m.

To enable the public to learn more about Riverhead Resorts, the 755-acre multi-resort and hotel/convention facility planned for the former Grumman site in Calverton, the League of Women Voters of the Hamptons is hosting "A Public Forum on the Riverhead Resorts Plan in Calverton" on Monday, November 10 at 7 p.m.

All points of view will be presented by the panel which includes: Phil Cardinale, Supervisor of the Town of Riverhead; Robert DeLuca, President of the Group for the East End; Patricia Manzi, Pine Barrens site director for The Nature Conservancy; Mitch Pally, attorney representing Riverhead Resorts; and Brenda Prusinowski, Deputy Commissioner of Planning for the Town of Brookhaven.

The panelists will make opening and closing statements and answer questions from the audience. Maps will be available, showing the eight planned theme parks that feature a fitness/aquatics facility, a wilderness resort, equine area, spa facility, indoor ski mountain, heritage/entertainment area, water adventure resort, and a conference center, all surrounding a 90-acre lake. Details have been posted by the planners at www.riverheadresorts.com.

The forum takes place at the Southampton Town Senior Center in Hampton Bays, 25 Ponquogue Avenue, across from the Hampton Bays Post Office. Parking is available behind the Senior Center, in the King Kullen shopping center.

The forum will be taped by SEA-TV for later televised viewing on Southampton Town's Channel 22 and will also be available on their Website at www.town.southampton.ny.us.
