LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS HOLDS PUBLIC FORUM ON “ACCESSORY APARTMENTS: WHAT’S HAPPENING?”
Monday, July 11, 7 p.m., Hampton Library, Bridgehampton

The League of Women Voters of the Hamptons is hosting a free public forum on “Accessory Apartments: What’s Happening?” on Monday, July 11 at 7 p.m. in the community room of Bridgehampton’s Hampton Library at 2478 Main Street.

The program will bring residents up-to-date on the differences and success rates of the accessory apartment laws established in the Town of Southampton in 2002 and East Hampton in 2007 and will discuss current issues resulting from these laws.

Panelists will include Councilman Christopher Nuzzi of the Southampton Town Board, Deputy Supervisor Theresa Quigley of the East Hampton Town Board, and Nancy Marr, Housing Co-Chair of the Suffolk County League of Women Voters.

Moderating will be Hamptons League Housing Chair Barbara Jordan, who serves on the East Hampton Town Housing Advisory Board, the East Hampton Town Housing Authority, and the East Hampton Town Demographics Study Group.

The forum will be taped and aired by Southampton Town’s SEA-TV, Channel 22.

Refreshments will be served at the beginning of the program.

For further information, call the library at 631-537-0015 or the League at 631-324-6144.
