

LWVH invites you on our “AMAGANSETT ADVENTURE”
Wednesday, June 10, 2015

Join us as we tour historic sites in Amagansett, visit thriving community facilities and enjoy lunch overlooking Gardiner’s Bay. All for just $40, including a tasty lunch and guided tours.

The schedule

✱ 11 a.m. Meet at the East Hampton Town Marine Museum for a tour

The Marine Museum on Bluff Road shelters and explains Amagansett’s heritage as a centuries-old whaling and fishing community.

To Marine Museum, 301 Bluff Rd., From Montauk Hwy, pass the first traffic light in Amagansett, turn right at Mobil Station onto Indian Wells Highway toward beach, then left on Bluff Rd.

✱ 12 noon. Tour East End Classic Boat Society’s Community Boat Shop

This gem lies down the driveway to the right of the Marine Museum. Take a guided tour and view the lovely boats the group restores.

✿ 12:20 p.m. The historic Amagansett Life-Saving Station (under renovation).

Hear from Isabel Carmichael, whose family saved the building from ruin and then donated it back to the Town, about the Nazi landing in 1942.

To get there, drive around the corner onto Atlantic Ave.

1 p.m. The Art Barge, established by Victor D'Amico, the founding director of the Education Dep't at MOMA, 1937-70. Now the site of art classes for all ages and skill levels.

Enjoy a catered lunch (included in fee) overlooking beautiful Napeague Harbor, followed by a tour and talk by Christopher Kohan, President of the Art Barge Board.

Directions to Art Barge, 110 Napeague Meadow Rd.: Go east on Bluff Rd. to Montauk Hwy. Then drive east about 3.5 miles. At White Sands Motel on right, turn left onto Napeague Meadow Rd., cross railroad tracks, follow Art Barge driveway to water.

Optional stops on your way home:

- Tour Victor Amico's House: From Art Barge, go north on Napeague Meadow Rd., turn right on Lazy Point Rd., go about 3 miles. Turn left on Shore Rd. to #128 on beach.
- Stroll the shops in Amagansett Square and check out clothing, antique shops and restaurants on Main St.
- See Miss Amelia's cottage and antique carriages on Main St.
