LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS HOLDS PUBLIC PROGRAM ON “THE RETREAT” AND HOW IT COMBATS DOMESTIC VIOLENCE
Monday, November 14, 7 p.m., Hampton Library in Bridgehampton

Residents interested in learning more about the work of The Retreat, whose mission is “to provide safety, shelter and support for victims of domestic abuse and to break the cycle of family violence” on the East End, are invited to a League of Women Voters of the Hamptons panel discussion on Monday, November 14, at 7 p.m. in Bridgehampton’s Hampton Library at 2478 Main Street.

Titled “Breaking the Silence: What Everyone Needs to Know About Dating and Domestic Violence in Our Community,” the program will include presentations by Helen Atkinson-Barnes, the Retreat’s Educator; Minerva Perez, the Shelter Director; Thalia Olaya, a Retreat teen leader; and short videos illustrating the issues. Local police chiefs from East Hampton Town, Southampton Town, and Sag Harbor Village are also planning to attend.

Refreshments will be served at the beginning of the program.

For further information, call the Library at 631-537-0015, or the League at 631-283-0759.

Information about The Retreat is available on their website at www.theretreatinc.org.
